

Grain and Color Adjustment Procedure

Process 1	Grain Adjustment	Personnel resource	No designation
		Material Resource	Grain process supplier
INPUT
The supplier shall implement the following items when the grain embossing is directed by drawing (specification included): a) Verify the type and scope of grain embossing by drawing (specification included) b) Clarification of requirements that need to be consistent with Honda c) Attendance at “Grain Go meeting” (when required by Honda) The supplier shall coordinate the following items at “Grain go meeting” with Honda and its grain process supplier, but are not limited to the following: d) Manufacturability e) Direction and depth of the grain Honda records the results of the coordination in the “Instructions for Grain Direction and Grained Finish Depth”, then deliver the copy to the supplier. The supplier shall, after the receipt of “Grain Instruction”, produce part molds in accordance with the agreement specified in “Grain Direction and Depth Instructions”. Molds shall be produced in a manner that the delivery of products will be in time for the appointed delivery date.
Process 2	Color Adjustment	Personnel resource	No designation
		Material Resource	Color application plate Color measuring equipment (colorimeter, etc.) Approved actual part sample
INPUT
The supplier shall implement the following items when the color is assigned for products by drawing (specification included): a) Confirm the color designated by drawing (specification included) b) Clarification of requirements that need to be consistent with Honda c) Request Honda the color application plate (when color is newly adopted) d) Attendance at “Color coordination meeting” (when required by Honda) The supplier shall complete “Color matching reference chart” with the required information, including the following items: e) Evaluation results by visual and/or measurement using color measuring equipment (colorimeter, etc.) f) Verification result of the manufactured products with color application plate at “Color coordination meeting” The supplier shall present “Color matching reference chart” when required by Honda. The supplier shall retain the approved actual products sample of color for which the final agreement was entered into with Honda with considering the following items: g) Mutually dated and signed by Honda and the supplier h) Protected from discoloration or damage			